Neighbourhood Watch in 2019: Social media is changing how we interact with our neighbours

ABC Radio Perth By Gian De Poloni

Posted 2 Feb 2019, 6:00am

The image shows a man in a striped t-shirt and a woman in a blue apron over a dark top, standing on a balcony with a white railing. They are engaged in a conversation, with the man gesturing towards the woman. The background shows greenery and a building.

Focus for the Future.....

Neighbourhood Watch WA Strategy 2020 - 2023

Our Vision	To improve the quality of life for neighbours by: Empowering neighbours to build healthier relationships to improve the quality of life for everyone. Contribute to building friendly and connected communities where neighbours feel safe and secure.
Our Mission	To encourage and support local communities to work together to improve the quality of life and safety of local neighbourhoods.
Core Social Value	To enhance the well being of our communities.

Focus for the Future.....

- Increase community involvement in the NHW philosophy.
- Increase community awareness and the reporting of crime and anti social behaviour.
- Improve the level of household, business and personal safety and security in the community.
- Raise awareness and profile of NHW in the community.
