

Local Government Guidelines for Bushland Management In the Perth and Coastal South-West Natural Resource Management Regions Western Australia

CARING
FOR OUR COUNTRY

Councils Caring for their Natural Communities

Councils Caring for their Natural Communities

Local Government Guidelines for Bushland Management In the Perth and Coastal South-West Natural Resource Management (NRM) Regions Western Australia

Written by Sonia Lamond, Perth Biodiversity Project

January 2009

Acknowledgments

This document is a result of collaboration between the Perth Biodiversity Project and the South West Biodiversity Project. The author acknowledges the work by Trudy O'Connor, South West Biodiversity Project and Liz Penter, Perth Biodiversity Project who drafted the first versions of this document (2007).

Special thanks to Julia Cullity, Department of Environment and Conservation for her significant contribution in reviewing the Guidelines. Thanks also to: Renee Bell, City of Wanneroo for providing information for Appendix D; Nari Williams; Matthilde Bretton; Christina Mykytiuk; Melissa Rogers and John Lane for their contributions.

The following people are also acknowledged for having provided comments on draft versions of the document: Linda Metz; Fleur Patterson; Renee Bell; Karen Britza; Toby Rees; Brooke Smith; Paula Haro; Toni Burbidge; Kelly Sexton; Ryan Munro; Jenni Andrews; Alison McCristell and Alison Dugand.

Thanks to Jodie Wood, South West Biodiversity Project, Renata Zelinova and Teik Oh, Perth Biodiversity Project for the provision of additional information, editing and formatting.

Published by the Western Australian Local Government Association and Perth Biodiversity Project 2009
15 Altona St
West Perth WA 6005
Phone: (08) 9321 5055

Cover photo supplied by Renata Zelinova, Perth Biodiversity Project